

A Call From Japan - Action June 11: No Nuclear Power

Tuesday 17 May 2011, by Collective / Multiple signers (Date first published: 17 May 2011).

The appel of "Action June 11: No Nuclear Power" is prepared and issued by the activists of various groups which sponsored the anti-nuke actions such as the April-10 Kouenji demonstration and April-24 Yoyogi-Park parade and Shiba-Park demonstration in Tokyo, and the "Datsugenpatsu/Atarasii-Enerugii-seisaku wo Jitshdgensuru Kai (Association for Realization of Denuclearization/New Energy Policy: <http://e-shift.org/>)" and "Fukushima-Jiko Kinkyu Kaigi (Fukushima Accident Emergency Conference: <http://2011shinsai.info/node/125>)" which have been set up respectively by anti-nuke NGOs and by activists of labor, social and citizens movements as the aftermath of March-11 Fukushima disaster. An extremely wide range of groups/organizations/associations, every kinds of entities and a large number of individual persons have endorsed the "Action June 11: No Nuclear Power" appeal.

Action June 11: No Nuclear Power

The day marks three months after the Fukushima nuclear disaster triggered by the earthquake and tsunami. The plants are still spewing radioactive materials. No one wants such dirty electricity harmful to human and nature.

Join us on June 11th with million-people action throughout the world and let our voice heard.

Many citizens and groups in Japan have started organizing June 11 actions like demonstrations or parades. We need your support to spread our message and hear from as many people on Earth as possible.

Why don't you endorse our June 11 actions?

Endorsing groups or organizations will be publicized on our website. We appreciate it if you decide to organize your own demonstrations, parades, gatherings, or anything on June 11th or 12th.

Our solidarity, if you are in Japan, in Asia, in Europe, in Americas, or anywhere in this world, will soon end this dark age of nuclear power generation.
