We already published 4 informative accounts on the solidarity campaign with the victims of the super-typhoon Haiyan/Yolanda, which hit the center of the Philippines last 8th of November. The most recent one gives a progress report of the aid organized on the site by Mi-HANDS, our partner from Mindanao [1] : the first phase of the initiative has been realized and the second is now being prepared.

We also published a partial synthesis of the situation in the Philippines a month after the passage of this devastating cyclone [
